

FirstBank and TUSC Extend Partnership

June 9, 2020

Tennessee United Soccer Club is proud to announce an extended multi-year partnership with Nashville-based FirstBank, the third largest Tennessee-headquartered bank, which will continue as the organization's jersey partner extending through 2022.

The partnership includes branding on all TUSC jerseys, as well as integration into a variety of Club management and organization initiatives.

"Our partnership with FirstBank has been a perfect fit. FirstBank has the same core values and commitment to excellence as our Club and players," said TUSC Director of Operations, Jonathan Wayland. "Our players and families have benefited both directly and indirectly through the partnership and support that FirstBank provides. We look forward to continuing to work with FirstBank."

Andy Arbuckle, a commercial banker with FirstBank in Goodlettsville, said "We are very excited to extend our partnership with TUSC. This has been a great outreach for FirstBank and we look forward to serving our community through this joint relationship. FirstBank started more than 100 years ago to serve the local needs of small communities in Tennessee; and while we have grown, we have not lost sight of our community banking roots and our emphasis on actively supporting the markets where we do business."
